Preliminary Program: Great Lakes Political Economic Theory Conference, April 1st, 2023

Presentations are 35 minutes, followed by 10 minute discussion, and 5 minute questions.

8:30-9:00: Breakfast

9:00-9:50: Voter Polarization and Extremism, Jon Eguia, Michigan State University (joint with Tai-Wei Hu)

9:50-10:40: Elections with Job-Motivated Bureaucrats, Jean Guillaume Forand, University of Waterloo

10:40-11:10: Coffee Break

11:10-12:00: Competitive Fair Redistricting, Mattias Polborn, Vanderbilt University (joint with Felix Bierbrauer)

12:00-1:30 Lunch (provided)

1:30-2:20: Altruistic Motives and the Timing of Protests, German Gieczewski, Princeton University (joint with Korhan Kocak)

3:10-3:30: Coffee Break

3:30-4:20: Measuring the Tolerance of the State: Theory and Application to Protest, Mehdi Shadmehr, University of North Carolina (joint with Veli Andirin, Yusuf Neggers, Jesse Shapiro)

4:20-4:40: Coffee Break

4:40-5:30: Authoritarian Social Control, Roger Lagunoff, Georgetown University

Conference Dinner to follow at Kofusion, in Champaign.