

Great Lakes Political Economy Theory Conference

The University of Chicago Harris School of Public Policy hosts the third annual conference on Saturday, September 14, 2019.

This conference promotes research in political economy theory in the Great Lakes region. The University of Western Ontario hosted the inaugural conference in 2017, and Michigan State University hosted in 2018.

Location

The University of Chicago Harris School of Public Policy
The Keller Center
1307 E. 60th St.
Chicago, IL 60637

Schedule:

8:30am-8:55am: Registration (breakfast provided).

8:55am-9:00am: Welcome

9:00am-9:55am: Anqi Li (WashU) and Lin Hu (ANU), The Politics of Attention.

Discussant: Stefan Krasa (UIUC)

9:55am-10:50am: Mehdi Shadmehr (Harris), Dan Bernhardt (UIUC, Warwick) and Stefan Krasa (UIUC), Demagogues and the Instability of Democracy.

Discussant: Leyla Karakas (Syracuse)

10:50am-11:00am: Coffee Break

11:00am-11:55am: Arianna Degan (Quebec) and Braz Camargo (Sao Paulo School of Economics), Accountability and Political Competition.

Discussant: Scott Ashworth (Chicago)

11:55am-12:50pm: Jon Eguia (MSU), Regime Change.

Discussant: Jack Paine (Rochester)

12:50pm-2:15pm: Lunch (in the same location)

2:15pm-3:10pm: Scott Tyson (Rochester), The Liquidity of Allegiance.

Discussant: Davin Raiha (Indiana)

3:10pm-4:05pm: Richard Van Weelden (Pittsburgh), Navin Kartik (Columbia), Andreas Kleiner (Arizona State), Delegation in Veto Bargaining.

Discussant: Wiola Dziuda (Harris)

4:05pm-4:25pm: Coffee Break.

4:25pm-5:20pm: John Duggan (Rochester) and Larry Rothenberg (Rochester), Political Influence and the Social Cost of Pressure Group Competition.

Discussant: John G. Forand (Waterloo).

7:15pm: Dinner (Nella: 1125 E 55th St, Chicago, IL 60615)